I. INTRODUCTION.

Pursuant to Maryland Rule 18-411(i), an Annual Report is prepared by the Maryland Commission on Judicial Disabilities (“Commission”) for submission to the Court of Appeals regarding the Commission’s operations, including statistical data with respect to complaints received and processed, subject to materials declared confidential under Maryland Rule 18-407. This report is publicly available in accord with Maryland Rule 18-407(c).

The Commission is the primary disciplinary body charged with investigating complaints that allege judicial misconduct, or disability/impairment (mental and/or physical) of Maryland’s judicial officers, as empowered by the Maryland Constitution.

The work of the Commission plays a vital role in maintaining public confidence in, and preserving the integrity and impartiality of, the judiciary. The Commission, by providing a forum for citizens with complaints against judges, helps maintain the balance between judicial independence and public accountability. The Commission also helps to improve and strengthen the judiciary by creating a greater awareness of proper judicial conduct.

The laws creating and governing the Commission’s work are as follows:

- Maryland Constitution, Art. IV, §§4A and 4B;
- Annotated Code of Maryland, Courts and Judicial Proceedings, §§13-401 through 13-403;
- Maryland Rules 18-401 through 18-442¹; and
- Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct, Maryland Rules, Title 18, Chapter 100.

Copies of the laws governing the Commission are available through the Commission’s website at www.mdcourts.gov/cjd/index.html.

II. HISTORY AND STRUCTURE OF THE COMMISSION.

The Commission was established by constitutional amendment in 1966 in response to a growing need for an independent body to assist in monitoring the conduct of Maryland’s judges. Subsequent constitutional amendments strengthened the Commission, clarified its powers, and added four (4) additional members of the public to the Commission. The Constitution requires the Court of Appeals to adopt rules for the implementation and enforcement of the Commission’s powers and the practice and procedures before the ¹ The Court of Appeals issued an Order on May 15, 2019 adopting new Maryland Rules 18-401 to 18-442, the rules governing the Commission on Judicial Disabilities which became effective on July 1, 2019. After the implementation of the Rules, the Commission found it necessary to submit proposed changes to Maryland Rules 18-404, 18-407, 18-425, 18-427 and 18-437 to the Attorneys and Judges Subcommittee of the Maryland Standing Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. The subcommittee approved changes to Rules 18-404, 18-407, 18-425 and 18-437, but not 18-427 regarding Reprimand provisions. The four (4) new rules were adopted by the Court of Appeals. The Court of Appeals also adopted amendments to existing rules that changed the title of the Commission’s Executive Secretary to Executive Counsel.

Commission.

The Maryland Constitution, Art. IV, §4B(a)(1)(i) & (ii) & 2, gives the Commission the following specific powers to:

- (i) Investigate complaints against any judge of the Court of Appeals, any intermediate courts of appeal, the circuit courts, the District Court of Maryland, or the orphans' court; and
- (ii) Conduct hearings concerning such complaints, administer oaths and affirmations, issue process to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, and require persons to testify and produce evidence by granting them immunity from prosecution or from penalty or forfeiture.
- (iii) The Commission has the power to issue a reprimand and the power to recommend to the Court of Appeals the removal, censure, or other appropriate disciplining of a judge or, in an appropriate case, retirement.

Further, the Maryland Rules give the Commission the authority to dismiss complaints (with or without a letter of cautionary advice), issue reprimands, enter into conditional diversion agreements with judges, and if the Commission finds by clear and convincing evidence that the judge has a disability or impairment, or has committed sanctionable conduct, to refer the matter to the Court of Appeals. If the Commission finds the judge has committed sanctionable conduct and that dismissal, with or without a letter of cautionary advice, or a conditional diversion agreement is not appropriate but does not find that the judge has a disability or impairment, it shall either issue a reprimand to the judge, if the proceeding was conducted pursuant to Rule 18-427(b)(2)(A) or (B), or refer the matter to the Court of Appeals.

The Commission Members consist of eleven (11) persons: three (3) judges, one (1) from the appellate courts, one (1) from the Circuit Courts, and one (1) from the District Courts; three (3) lawyers, with each admitted to practice law in Maryland and having at least seven (7) years of experience; and five (5) members of the public, none of whom are active or retired judges, admitted to practice law in Maryland, or persons having a financial relationship with, or receive compensation from, a judge or lawyer licensed in Maryland. All Commission Members are appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the State Senate, and are citizens and residents of Maryland. Membership is limited to two (2), four (4)-year terms, or, if initially appointed to fill a vacancy, for no more than a total of ten (10) years.

Effective July 1, 2007, the Court of Appeals established by rule the Judicial Inquiry Board ("Board"), thereby creating a "two-tier" structure within the Commission. The Board consists of seven (7) persons: two (2) judges, two (2) lawyers, and three (3) public members who are not lawyers or judges. As of July 1, 2019, Board Members are appointed by the Court of Appeals for terms of up to four (4) years. Prior to July 1, 2019, Board Members were appointed by the Commission and were limited to two (2), four (4)-year terms, or, if initially appointed to fill a vacancy, for no more than a total of ten (10) years.

Complaints against Maryland judges are investigated by the Commission's Investigative Counsel ("Investigative Counsel"). The Board monitors the investigations conducted by Investigative Counsel. The Board reviews investigative materials and Investigative Counsel's reports and recommendations before submitting its own reports and recommendations to the Commission Members in all matters except recommendations for dismissals without a letter of cautionary advice (which go directly to the Commission from Investigative Counsel). The Commission Members accept or reject the Board's recommendations and act consistent with the powers and authority granted to the Commission. The Commission directly reviews and makes determinations regarding cases recommended for dismissal without a letter of cautionary advice in addition to matters previously reviewed by the Board.

III. THE COMMISSION'S JURISDICTION - WHAT THE COMMISSION CAN AND CANNOT DO.

The Commission is authorized to investigate complaints only against judges of the Maryland Court of Appeals, Court of Special Appeals, Circuit Courts, District Courts, and Orphans' Courts, and any retired Maryland judge during the period that the retired judge has been approved to sit. The Commission:

1. Has no authority to investigate complaints against Magistrates (formerly masters), Examiners, Administrative Law Judges, Federal Judges, lawyers, police, court personnel, State's Attorneys, or Public Defenders.
2. Does not have appellate authority and therefore cannot review, reverse, change, or modify a legal decision or other court action taken by a judge;
3. Cannot affect the progress or outcome of a case; and
4. Cannot require a judge's recusal or disqualify a judge from presiding over a particular case.

Pursuant to Maryland Rule 18-402, the only types of complaints that can be investigated by the Commission are those involving a judge's alleged sanctionable conduct, disability or impairment. They are defined as follows:

1. Sanctionable conduct means misconduct while in office, the persistent failure by a judge to perform the duties of the judge's office, or conduct prejudicial to the proper administration of justice. A judge's violation of the binding obligations of the Maryland Code of Judicial Conduct promulgated by Title 18, Chapter 100 may constitute sanctionable conduct.

Sanctionable conduct does not include the following by a judge, unless the judge's conduct also involves fraud or corrupt motive or raises a substantial question as to the judge's fitness for office:

- making an erroneous finding of fact;
 - reaching an incorrect legal conclusion;
 - misapplying the law; or
 - failure to decide matters in a timely fashion, unless such failure is habitual.
2. Disability means a mental or physical disability that seriously interferes with the performance of a judge's duties and is, or is likely to become, permanent.
 3. Impairment or impaired means a mental or physical condition, including an addiction, that has seriously interfered with the performance of a judge's duties but may be remediable and, if remedied, is not likely to become permanent.

IV. THE COMPLAINT PROCESS.

The complaint is a written communication under oath or supported by an affidavit alleging that a judge has a disability or impairment or has committed sanctionable conduct. Any individual, including a party or witness in a court case, lawyer, member of the public, judge, person who works for or assists the court, or other person, can file a complaint with the Commission; this individual is considered the "Complainant" and the judge is considered the "Respondent". The Complainant can download a complaint form from the Commission's website, receive a form from the Commission's office, or provide a written communication with the required information.

Allegations may be dismissed, prior to investigation, if they do not allege facts which, if true, would constitute a disability, impairment, or sanctionable conduct, and therefore do not constitute a complaint. Investigative Counsel will open a file for each properly filed complaint, send a letter to Complainant acknowledging receipt of the complaint and explain the procedure for investigating and processing the complaint. In addition, the Investigative Counsel may make an inquiry and open a file after receiving information from any source that indicates a judge may have committed sanctionable conduct or may have a disability or impairment.

If the allegations are not dismissed, or an inquiry is completed without a dismissal, Investigative Counsel conducts an investigation and thereafter reports to the Board or Commission the results of the investigation, including one of the following recommendations:

- dismiss the complaint and terminate the investigation, with or without a letter of cautionary advice;
- reprimand;
- conditional diversion agreement;
- the filing of charges; or

- retirement of the judge based upon a finding of disability.

If the matter proceeds to the Board, upon receiving the Investigative Counsel's report and recommendation, the Board reviews the report and recommendation and could authorize a further investigation, or meet informally with the judge, including convening a peer review panel to confer regarding the complaint and options for the judge to consider. Upon completion of the foregoing, the Board prepares a report to the Commission, including its recommendation, with any of the following recommendations:

- dismiss the complaint and terminate the investigation, with or without a letter of cautionary advice;
- a conditional diversion agreement;
- a reprimand;
- retirement; or
- upon a determination of probable cause that the judge has a disability or impairment or has committed sanctionable conduct, the filing of charges.

The Commission Members review all matters coming from Investigative Counsel and the Board, and can take action, with or without proceeding on charges, after reviewing the reports, including recommendations, and any response filed by the judge. If the Commission Members direct Investigative Counsel to file charges against the judge alleging that the judge committed sanctionable conduct or has a disability or impairment, the charges are served upon the judge and a hearing scheduled as to the charges. Formal hearings are conducted in accord with the Maryland Rules of Evidence.

If, after the hearing, the Commission Members find by clear and convincing evidence that the judge committed sanctionable conduct or has a disability or impairment, the Commission will issue its findings and, if necessary, refer the case to the Court of Appeals with recommendations as to disposition. The Court of Appeals can take any one of the following actions: (1) impose the sanction recommended by the Commission or any other sanction permitted by law; (2) dismiss the proceeding; or (3) remand for further proceedings as specified in the order of remand.

V. CONFIDENTIALITY.

Except to the extent admitted into evidence before the Commission, the following matters are confidential: (A) Investigative Counsel's work product and, subject to Rules 18-422(b)(3)(A), 18-424(d)(3) and 18-433(c), reports prepared by Investigative Counsel not submitted to the Commission; (B) proceedings before the Board, including any peer review proceeding; (C) any materials reviewed by the Board during its proceedings that were not submitted to the Commission; (D) deliberations of the Board and Commission; and (E) records of the Board's and Commission's deliberations.

Charges alleging sanctionable conduct and all subsequent proceedings before the Commission on those charges are open to the public upon the first to occur of (A) the resignation or voluntary retirement of the judge, (B) the filing of a response by the judge to the charges, or (C) expiration of the time for filing a response. Charges alleging disability or impairment and all proceedings before the Commission on them are confidential. Charges alleging only that a judge has a disability or impairment, and all proceedings before the Commission on such charges, are confidential.

VIII. SUMMARY OF COMMISSION ACTIVITY IN FY 2021.

During Fiscal Year 2021 (July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021), the Commission opened files for One Hundred Eighty-Seven (187) verified complaints.

Ten (10) complaints were filed by attorneys, twenty-six (26) by inmates, sixteen (16) by Investigative Counsel, and one hundred thirty-five (135) were filed by members of the general public.

Complaints against Circuit Court Judges totaled one hundred thirty-one (131); forty-four (44) complaints were filed against District Court Judges; three (3) complaints were filed against Court of Special Appeals Judges; zero (0) complaints were filed against Court of Appeals judges; and nine (9) complaints were filed against Orphans' Court Judges. There were sixteen (16) complaints against Senior Judges sitting in various jurisdictions and courts.

The types of cases involved include:

- Family law matters (divorce, custody, visitation, protective orders, etc.)- thirty-eight (38) complaints;
- Criminal cases- forty-two (42) complaints;
- Other Civil cases- eighty-nine (89) complaints;

- Miscellaneous or other Non-Courtroom related proceedings- seventeen (17) complaints.

-Charges were filed in one (1) case in FY20 prior to the judge's voluntary retirement.

A public hearing was completed in FY21 with the Commission recommending and the Court of Appeals ordering the removal of an Orphans' Court judge. In the Matter of the Honorable Amy Leigh Nickerson, 472 Md. 687, 248 A.3d 298 (2021).

A District Court judge resigned during the investigative phase of a complaint.

An Orphans' Court judge resigned during the investigative phase of a complaint.

A Reprimand was issued by the Commission of a Circuit Court judge for election violations.

A Deferred Discipline Agreement with a Circuit Court judge was successfully terminated.

The Commission entered into a Conditional Diversion Agreement with a Circuit Court judge which was successfully terminated.

- 1) An Orphans' Court judge utilized judicial office to further success in law practice on the internet.
- 2) A District Court judge failed to follow landlord-tenant law, attempted to influence settlement negotiations, and denied a party the opportunity to be heard.

The vast majority of complaints in Fiscal Year 2021, as in prior years, were dismissed because the allegations set forth in the complaints were either found to be unsubstantiated, or the conduct complained about did not constitute sanctionable conduct.

Additional matters involving the Commission in FY21 are summarized as follows:

-A Federal Court dismissed a matter filed by a former Complainant against many defendants, including Investigative Counsel, regarding a matter previously dismissed by the Commission.

- The Court of Special Appeals issued an Opinion denying a Complainant's actions for Declaratory Judgment and Judicial Review following the Commission's dismissal of a Complaint. Green v. Commission on Judicial Disabilities, 462 Md. 266, 199 A.3d 696 (2019). A petition for writ of certiorari was denied by the Court of Appeals.

-The Commission Chair, Investigative Counsel and Executive Secretary received positive feedback after conducting a training for Maryland's Orphans' Court judges on the rules governing judicial discipline.
