

Quanisha L. Jones is the Office Manager for the Court of Special Appeals' ADR Division. Ms. Jones provides administrative support to the ADR Division Director and staff members. A newcomer to the world of Alternative Dispute Resolution, Ms. Jones is actively learning the art of mediation from her colleagues and is being trained in the various mediation models. She started working with the courts in 2008 as an intern to former Judge, Brian Kim at the District Court of Maryland for Montgomery County. She then transitioned into the position of Summer Help for the District Court of Maryland for Montgomery County Clerks' Office and continued there through 2011 in order to pursue her academic endeavors. Ms. Jones received her B.A. in Sociology with a minor in Criminal Justice from Elizabeth City State University in 2013 and is currently working towards a Masters in Paralegal Studies at George Washington University.