

GUIDE TO EXPUNGEMENT OF NUISANCE CRIMES

A defendant may petition for expungement if found:

- guilty for a crime specified in Code*, Criminal Procedure Article § 10-105(a)(9) and at least three years have passed since the conviction or satisfactory completion of the sentence, including probation, whichever is later.
- not criminally responsible for a crime specified in Code*, Criminal Procedure Article § 10-105(a)(9) or (a)(10) and at least three years have passed since the finding of not criminally responsible.

The person is not entitled to expungement if:

- the petition is based on the entry of probation before judgment, except a probation before judgment for a crime where the act on which the conviction is based is no longer a crime; and
- the person within three years of the entry of the probation before judgment has been convicted of a crime; or the person is a defendant in a pending criminal action.

Criminal Procedure § 10-107

(a)(1) In this subtitle, if two or more charges, other than one for a minor traffic violation, arise from the same incident, transaction, or set of facts, they are considered to be a unit.

(2) A charge for a minor traffic violation that arises from the same incident, transaction, or set of facts as a charge in the unit is not a part of the unit.

(b)(1) If a person is not entitled to expungement of one charge or conviction in a unit, the person is not entitled to expungement of any other charge or conviction in the unit.

(2) The disposition of a charge for a minor traffic violation that arises from the same incident, transaction, or set of facts as a charge in the unit does not affect any right to expungement of a charge or conviction in the unit.
