

RECORDINGS

The District Court of Maryland is a court of record, which means that all proceedings before the court are recorded.

A typed transcript of a proceeding will be produced under certain limited conditions.

Recordings on cassette tape or compact disc format may be requested by anyone.

TRANSCRIPTS

Transcripts may be obtained only when the person making the request has appealed a District Court judgment in a civil case where the amount in dispute is more than $5,000 ($2,500 if case was filed prior to 10/1/2003) In such instances, you must request that a transcript be forwarded to the circuit court.

When you make your request, you must submit a copy of your appeal letter, along with a $75 deposit. The court will prepare one original, which is sent to the circuit court and one copy, which is sent to you.

The cost for a transcript is $3 per page. If your final cost totals less than $75, a copy of the transcript will automatically be mailed to you and the balance of your deposit returned.

If your final cost totals more than $75, the court will bill you. Your copy of the transcript will be released to you upon payment of the bill.

Anyone may request a copy of an audio recording of a case, regardless of whether the individual making the request was a party in that case. Requests for recordings must be submitted in writing to the clerk's office. The cost for the recording is $15 per case.

The District Court is upgrading its recording system from a cassette tape to a data compact disc (CD) format. Cases heard prior to the upgrade will be provided on cassette tape; all other recordings will be provided on a CD that can be played back on a Windows-based computer.

A party to any case, or the attorney for any party, may be permitted to listen to the recording of the trial of that case, at a time and a place determined by a judge to be appropriate.

MAKING A REQUEST

To request a transcript or recording, you must submit a letter or request for transcript or recording to the District Court location where your case was heard. Your request must include the following information:

- the case number
- the trial/hearing dates
- the names of both parties to the case; and
- your name, address, and phone number

Transcripts are generally completed within 60 days of a request, while recordings are completed within 30 days.
