Come learn about hot topics in family mediation, including mediation in a down economy (i.e., no equity, no 401(k), bankruptcy, foreclosures, and short sales); lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender issues and gay marriage; collaborative law and mediation; elder mediation; and the latest research into domestic violence and mediation.

About the Speaker: Internationally known as a mediator, trainer, facilitator, and a consultant for organizations on collaborative processes, Zena D. Zumeta is president of the Mediation Training & Consultation Institute and the Collaborative Workplace in Ann Arbor, Michigan. She trained lawyers, psychologists, social workers, educators, and numerous professionals working with divorcing families. Called the grandmother of divorce mediation in Michigan, Ms. Zumeta has provided mediation services for 28 years, making her practice one of the oldest in the state.

Ms. Zumeta is a former board member and president of the Academy of Family Mediators (now merged into the Association for Conflict Resolution) and is the recipient of several prominent awards, including the Family Mediation Council-Michigan Lifetime Achievement in Mediation Award.
