

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

THIRD ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

ON REMOTE ORAL ARGUMENTS

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 14 of the Maryland Constitution provides that judges of the Court of Appeals may temporarily transfer their sittings elsewhere upon sufficient cause; and sufficient cause having been found to exist due to the COVID-19 emergency, and

WHEREAS, the February 16, 2021 Amended Administrative Order Expanding Statewide Judiciary Operations in Light of the COVID-19 Emergency provides that, pending further order of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, the courts are authorized and shall conduct remote proceedings to the greatest extent possible during the health emergency, using communication platforms consistent with the Administrative Order on the Implementation of Remote Electronic Participation in Judicial Proceedings, filed June 18, 2018, and the Amended Administrative Order on Remote Proceedings Held During the COVID-19 Emergency, filed May 1, 2020, and

WHEREAS, the Court of Appeals has previously held remote oral arguments for cases designated to be heard in the June Session of the 2019 Term and the September and October Sessions of the 2020 Term, pursuant to the May 18, 2020 Administrative Order Rescheduling May Oral Arguments and Postponing Other Oral Arguments, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the October 26, 2020 Administrative Order on Remote Oral Arguments, the Court of Appeals has previously held remote oral arguments for cases designated to be heard in the November, December, and January Sessions of the 2020 Term, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to the December 16, 2020 Second Administrative Order on Remote Oral Arguments, the Court has held, or will hold, remote oral arguments for cases designated to be heard in the February and March Sessions of the 2020 Term, and

WHEREAS, it continues to be necessary to hold oral arguments by videoconferencing, it is this 1st day of March 2021

ORDERED, by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, that all cases scheduled for oral argument during the April Session of the 2020 Term be, and hereby are, designated to be heard by videoconferencing, the Court and its Clerk having advised, or will advise, the parties concerning the format and designated participation procedures.
