(c) ARTICLE III. PROCUREMENT METHODS

(1) Section 1: General Provisions

(A) Judiciary Procurement Methods

This policy allows six different Procurement methods which are:

- (i) Small Procurements – for Procurements of $50,000 or less;
- (ii) Invitation for Bids (IFB);
- (iii) Request for Proposals (RFP);
- (iv) Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing;
- (v) Sole Source Procurements; and,
- (vi) Emergency Procurements.

The Procurement Officer shall determine the appropriate Procurement method.

(2) Section 2: Small Procurement ($50,000 or Less)

(A) Application

- (i) Use of the Small Procurement method described shall be based on an initial decision by the Procurement Officer and application of dollar limits.
- (ii) To the extent that the Department of Procurement, Contract and Grant Administration delegates authority to Using Units to make Small Procurements, those Procurements shall be made in accordance with this Policy and as prescribed in the Procurement Procedures Manual.

(B) Conditions for Use

- (i) Small Procurements are for Procurements of $50,000 or less, and are classified in three categories:
 - (I) Category I Small Procurements - $5,000 or less; and,
 - (II) Category II Small Procurements - More than $5,000 but not more than $25,000.
 - (III) Category III Small Procurements- More than $25,000 but not more than $50,000.
- (ii) Prohibitions: A Procurement may not be divided artificially in order to use the Small Procurement method instead of the other Procurement methods set forth in this Policy, or to use a lesser category defined under of this section.

(3) Section 3: Invitation for Bids (IFB)

(A) Application

The decision to use the Invitation for Bids method shall be determined by the Procurement Officer.

(B) Conditions for Use

When price is the sole or main consideration in a Procurement, an Invitation for Bids may be used as the Procurement method for Solicitations in excess of $50,000.

(4) Section 4: Request for Proposals (RFP)

(A) Application

The decision to use Request for Proposals method shall be determined by the Procurement Officer.

(B) Conditions for Use

Request for Proposals is an appropriate method for the Procurement of services of any dollar value, or when considerations other than price are of the essence and in the Judiciary's best interest.

(5) Section 5: Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing

(A) Application

The decision to use the Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing method shall be determined by the Procurement Officer.

(B) Conditions for Use

An Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing Agreement (ICPA) is created when a public entity (such as the federal government, another state, a county, city or any other municipal entity) has solicited and awarded a Contract under competitive conditions resulting in competitive prices, terms, and conditions.

Use of Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing is appropriate when a public entity (such as the federal government, another state, a county, city or any other municipal entity) has solicited and awarded a Contract under competitive conditions resulting in identical prices, terms, and conditions as stipulated in the Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing Contract; or, if the Vendor agrees to provide the Judiciary with more favorable prices, terms, and conditions than those provided in the Intergovernmental Cooperative Purchasing Contract, and the Judiciary desires to avail itself of the more favorable prices, terms, and conditions.

(C) State of Maryland Contracts

A Statewide contract for use by any public entity in the State of Maryland does not constitute an ICPA and may be leveraged directly. The Procurement Officer shall verify that the pricing, terms, and conditions are identical to the Statewide contract.

(6) Section 6: Sole Source Procurement

(A) Application

If the Procurement Officer determines that a competitive source selection method cannot be used because certain Sole Source conditions exist, the Procurement Officer, after obtaining all appropriate approvals, may Award a Contract without competition to the Sole Source.

(B) Conditions for Use

(i) The following circumstances may necessitate a Sole Source Procurement:

- (I) When only one source exists that meets the requirements;
- (II) When the compatibility of Equipment, accessories, services, software, or replacement parts is the paramount consideration;
- (III) When a sole Vendor's Item is needed for trial use or testing;
- (IV) When a sole Vendor's Item is to be procured for resale;
- (V) When certain public utility services are to be procured and only one reasonable source exists; or,
- (VI) When moving services to an alternative Vendor would cause undue hardship or excess costs to the Judiciary.

(ii) The Determination as to whether a Procurement shall be made as a Sole Source shall be made in writing by the Procurement Officer, with the appropriate approval(s). The Procurement Officer may specify the application of the Determination and the duration of its effectiveness. In cases of reasonable doubt, competition should be solicited. Any request by a Using Unit that a Procurement be restricted to one Vendor shall be accompanied by an acceptable explanation as to why no other Vendor shall be suitable or acceptable to meet the need.

(iii) Award or Renewal of Real Property Leases. When it is determined to be in the best interest of the Judiciary, the Procurement Officer may negotiate the formation or renewal of a real Property Lease with the approval of the Director without soliciting other Proposals.

(7) Section 7: Emergency Procurement

The Director, or designee, with written approval of the Assistant State Court Administrator - Operations, may activate and proceed with Emergency Procurement Procedures as outlined within the Procurement Procedures Manual. Emergency Procurement Procedures may be updated and modified by the Director as required.

(d) ARTICLE IV. CONTRACT AWARD

(1) Section 1: Qualification and Duties

The Procurement Officer, with the approval of the Director, or designee, has sole authority to determine that a Person is not a Responsible Bidder or Offeror, or that the Bid is nonresponsive, or the Proposal is not reasonably susceptible of Award.

(e) ARTICLE V. CONTRACT MODIFICATIONS, RENEWAL OPTIONS, EXTENSIONS, AND NOVATIONS

(1) Section 1: Contract Modifications

(A) Any proposed modification, notwithstanding the value of the modification, that would materially change the scope of a Contract previously approved by the Judiciary per Article I must be reapproved at the same approval level.

(B) As a general rule, goods or services that are outside the scope of a Contract must be procured through one of the source selection methods prescribed in this policy document rather than by modifying the existing Contract. To determine whether a proposed modification is outside the scope of the existing Contract, consider whether the modification could have affected the competition at the time the original Solicitation was issued.

(C) Procurement Officers and Using Units should seek guidance from the Judiciary's Managing Legal Counsel, or designee, within the Administrative Office of the Courts, and the appropriate approval authority, when deciding if proposed work may be accomplished through a Contract Modification or if it requires a new Contract action.

(2) Section 2: Contract Renewal Options

(A) A valid Contract renewal Option is one where the Judiciary alone holds the power to exercise the Option, and the Option price is fixed in, or is objectively ascertainable under, the terms of the original Contract. Exercise of a renewal Option is not considered a Contract Modification. The Procurement Officer may exercise a renewal Option before the expiration of the Contract.

- (B) Bid or Proposal Solicitation containing Options to extend must include the following:
 - (i) Statement that the Judiciary has the unilateral right to exercise any Option(s);
 - (ii) Time frame for the initial period of performance (initial term);
 - (iii) Number of and time periods covered by Option periods; and,
 - (iv) Notice that the original Bid/offer must set forth the pricing for both the initial term and the Option periods (or Option quantities).
- (C) Contracts containing Options must include the following:
 - (i) Statement that the Judiciary has the unilateral right to exercise any Option(s).
 - (ii) Time frame for the initial period of performance (initial term).
 - (iii) Number of and time periods covered by Option periods; and,
 - (iv) Pricing for both the initial term and the Option periods (or Option quantities).
- (D) The exercise of a Contract Option must be approved by the appropriate authority and renewed before the initial term, or before any previously renewed Option term expires. A Contract which has expired may not be reinstated through modification or by the exercise of Options.

(3) Section 3: Extensions

Modifications to extend a Contract term are permitted only if it is extended before the term expires and the Procurement Officer has received approval from the appropriate approval authority when the purpose is to:

- (A) Complete work under a task order issued before the Contract expires; or,
- (B) Provide the Judiciary time to complete the new Procurement, to resolve a protest, or to facilitate a successful transition between Contractors; or,
- (C) There are unspent funds remaining, in which case the Judiciary may extend a Contract, but not add funds, for a total period no longer than one-third of the term of the original Contract, if the scope of work under the extension is the same as the original Contract.

(4) Section 4: Assignment/Novation/Name Change

(A) Assignment

A Judiciary Contract is not transferable, or otherwise assignable, without the written consent of the Procurement Officer and approval of both the Director and the Managing Legal Counsel, or designee, within the Administrative Office of the Courts. However, a Contractor may assign monies receivable under a Contract after due notice to the Judiciary.

(B) Recognition of a Successor in Interest Novation

When it is in the best interest of the Judiciary, a successor in interest may be recognized in a novation agreement in which the transferor and the transferee agree that:

- (i) The transferee assumes all of the transferor's obligations; and,
- (ii) The transferor waives all rights under the Contract against the Judiciary; and,
- (iii) Unless the transferor guarantees performance of the Contract by the transferee, the transferee shall, if required, furnish a satisfactory performance bond.

(C) Change of Name

When a Contractor requests to change the name in which it holds a Contract with the Judiciary, the Procurement Officer, upon receipt of a legally binding document indicating the change of name (for example, an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation), may enter into an agreement with the requesting Contractor to affect the change of name contingent upon the approval of the Director and the Managing Legal Counsel, or designee. The agreement changing the name specifically shall indicate that no other terms and conditions of the Contract are changed.

(f) ARTICLE VI. PROTESTS AND APPEALS

(1) Section 1: Protests

(A) Filing a Protest

- (i) An actual or prospective Bidder, Offeror, or Contractor who is aggrieved by the Solicitation or Award of a Contract, or by a Protest, may file a Protest with the Procurement Officer identified in the specific Solicitation.

- (iii) In all other cases, Protests shall be filed no later than seven (7) calendar days after the basis for the Protest is known, or should have been known, whichever is earlier.
- (iv) The Protestor shall bear all costs associated with filing and prosecuting a Protest.

(C) Requests for Additional Information

The Procurement Officer may request additional information in order to consider a Protest. The Protestor shall file the additional information with the Procurement Officer within five (5) calendar days after receiving the request. Failure of any party to comply with a request by the Procurement Officer for information or substantiation may result in a resolution of the Protest without consideration of any additional information.

(D) Confidentiality and Disclosure

Upon written request, the Procurement Officer shall make available information submitted that bears on the substance of the Protest, except when information is confidential or otherwise is permitted or required to be withheld by law. The Procurement Officer with the approval of the Director and, if necessary, in consultation with the Legal Affairs Department, will determine whether any information may be disclosed or must be withheld in accordance with the Access to Judicial Records Title of the Maryland Rules.

(E) Decision

- (i) The Procurement Officer, with the approval of the Director, shall issue a written decision on a Protest within thirty (30) Days after receiving all relevant information.
- (ii) The decision of the Procurement Officer shall include:
 - (I) A description of the controversy;

 - (III) A statement that provides the Protester with the name and address of the Appeals Board, and that they have seven (7) Days from the date of the decision to file an appeal.
- (iii) The Procurement Officer shall furnish the written decision to the Protester and all other interested parties by any method that provides evidence of receipt.

(F) Appeals

- (i) A Protestor who wishes to appeal the decision of the Procurement Officer on a Protest shall submit a written appeal, addressed to the Appeals Board care of the Managing Legal Counsel, or designee, within the Administrative Office of the Courts, as identified in the notice to the Protester, within seven (7) Days after receiving the Procurement Officer's written decision.
- (ii) The written appeal shall be expressly identified as an appeal and shall include:
 - (I) The name and address of the appellant(s);
 - (II) Appropriate identification of the Procurement; and,
 - (III) A statement of the reasons for the appeal, including all alleged error(s) of fact and/or law in the decision of the Procurement Officer that is being appealed.
- (iii) The Appeals Board shall issue its decision within 90 Days after the receipt of the appeal.
