DEFENDANT/TENANT INFORMATION

You can stop an eviction for Failure to Pay Rent by paying the amount that the court determined to be due, plus costs, unless the court has foreclosed your right of redemption. Not sure? DEFENDANT/TENANT INFORMATION (Real Property §§ 8-401(f) & (g))

The court has ordered enforcement of the judgment for possession that has been entered against you. This means that you can be forcibly removed (evicted) from the premises at any time after the date of this order, without warning.

If you have made payment(s) to redeem the property but the landlord does not agree, the court will determine the proper amount. If the court has ordered possession without the right of redemption you may not remain on the premises unless you and the landlord agree in writing that you may stay. Not sure? Talk with a lawyer for free at a Maryland Court Help Center. Call 410-260-1392 (Mon-Fri, 8:30 AM - 8:00 PM) or visit mdcourts.gov/helpcenter.

On the day of the eviction, the sheriff or constable will meet your landlord at the property to witness the eviction. At that time, your landlord may remove your property from the premises. The sheriff or constable will not protect your property.

If the sheriff or constable is forced to put you out, your property could become lost, stolen, or damaged. You may be required to pay for the removal, moving, or storage of your possessions.

DEFENDANT/TENANT INFORMATION – Baltimore City (only) (Baltimore City Housing & Urban Renewal Subtitle 8A)

The landlord in a failure to pay rent case, must provide notice to the tenant of the first scheduled eviction date in two ways:

1. Notice mailed by first-class mail with a certificate of mailing at least 14 days before the first scheduled eviction date.

AND

2. Notice posted on the premises at least 7 days before the first scheduled date of eviction.
The day of mailing or posting is Day 1. Day 14 must be no later than the day before the scheduled date of eviction.
Count holidays and weekends.

If you or the sheriff do not believe the notices were given properly, the sheriff may refer the issue to a judge to decide.

- If the judge determines that the landlord DID NOT give proper notice, the eviction will be vacated/canceled, and the landlord may apply for a new Warrant of Restitution.
- If the judge determines that the landlord DID give proper notice, the sheriff will execute the eviction immediately.

The Following Applies to All Evictions: When the sheriff returns possession of the property to the landlord, any of your personal property left in or around the rental unit is considered abandoned. You have no right to the property. The landlord may not put abandoned property in the street, sidewalk, alley, or on any public property. Illegal dumping of abandoned property from an eviction is a misdemeanor. Offenders are subject to a penalty of up to $1000 per day. A landlord may transport property to a landfill or solid waste facility or donate it to charity.

MOBILE HOMES

Failure to Pay Rent - (Real Property 8A-1701) - Judgment has been entered in favor of the park owner for possession of the premises. This warrant orders that the park owner be put in possession of the premises and that the mobile home be removed. You may have the right to redeem the premises by paying the amount owed plus late fees and court costs by cash, certified check, or money order. If you have received three judgments of rent due in the past 12 months, the landlord may foreclose your right to redeem the premises.

Tenant Holding Over - (Real Property 8A-1702) - Judgment has been entered in favor of the park owner for possession of the premises. This warrant orders that the park owner be put in possession of the premises and that the mobile home be removed.
