WRIT OF GARNISHMENT OF WAGES (Md. Rule 3-646)

TO THE GARNISHEE/EMPLOYER:

YOU ARE HEREBY DIRECTED to withhold the attachable wages of the defendant/judgment debtor for any work week or other pay period until the judgment, interest, other charges and costs as specified under the terms of the judgment are satisfied or until otherwise notified by this court. In addition to the exemptions that follow this writ, other federal and state exemptions may be available.

YOU ARE HEREBY DIRECTED to withhold any attachable wages and not to distribute the same, subject to the further order of this court because the judgment is not yet final.

YOU ARE FURTHER DIRECTED to send the amount withheld to the plaintiff/judgment creditor or attorney for the plaintiff/judgment creditor within fifteen (15) days after the close of the last pay period of the defendant/judgment debtor each month. If you assert a defense or are notified that the defendant/judgment debtor has done so, you are to send the withheld wages to the court.

YOU ARE FURTHER DIRECTED, within thirty (30) days of the date this writ is served on you, to complete the answer that follows this writ and to return one copy to the court, one to the plaintiff/judgment creditor and one to the defendant/judgment debtor. You must state whether the defendant/judgment debtor is employed by you, and if so employed, state the rate of pay, and whether there are any prior liens against the wages which are or may become payable. If you do not file a timely answer, the court, on motion of the plaintiff/judgment creditor, may order you to show cause why you should not be held in contempt and require you to pay reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

INSTRUCTIONS TO GARNISHEE / EMPLOYER

1. Commercial Law Article §§ 15-601 to 607 of the Annotated Code of Maryland and Rule 3-646 govern wage attachment procedures.
2. By written motion, both a defendant/judgment debtor and a garnishee/employer may assert any defense to contest the attachment.
3. If your answer denies the fact of employment, the court shall dismiss the attachment unless the plaintiff/judgment creditor files a request for a hearing within (15) days of the receipt of the answer.
4. If you do not file a timely answer, the court may, upon motion of the plaintiff/judgment creditor, issue an order directing you to show cause why you should not be held in contempt of court, and why you should not be required to pay reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
5. You must notify the employee each pay period of the amount withheld and the method used to determine the amount. This may be done by the use of pay stubs, pay slips, etc.
6. If there is more than one attachment, each one is to be satisfied in full, in the order in which they are served upon you.
7. This attachment remains a lien until the judgment is paid in full, or as long as the employee remains employed. Accruing interest may increase the amount of the judgment in the future, and it is also possible that additional costs accruing under the judgment may increase this total at a later date. It is also possible that payments made independently of this attachment may decrease the total balance due. Before ceasing to withhold any wages under this attachment, it is suggested that you communicate with the plaintiff/judgment creditor or their attorney to ascertain that the judgment has been completely satisfied.
8. The attachment terminates ninety (90) days after cessation of employment, unless the defendant/judgment debtor is reemployed during that ninety-day period.
9. The law provides that an employer may not discharge their employee because the employee's wages are subjected to attachment for any one indebtedness within a calendar year and that any employer who willfully violates this provision is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction, is subject to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

EXEMPTIONS FOR GARNISHMENT

THE FOLLOWING ARE EXEMPT FROM GARNISHMENT: the greater of: (a) 75 percent of the disposable wages due; or (b) 30 times the State minimum hourly wage in effect at the time the wages are due multiplied by the number of weeks during which the wages due were earned; AND any medical insurance payment deducted from an employee's wages by the employer. Other federal and state exemptions may be available.

Disposable wages are the part of wages that remain after deduction of any amount required to be withheld by law.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR

You have the right to contest the garnishment of wages by filing a motion asserting a defense or objection.
