

Legal Intern

Spring 2025

Closing Date: Open Until Filled

Office: Circuit Court for Prince George's County, The Honorable Michael R. Pearson

Judge Pearson is seeking a motivated and detail-oriented Judicial Law Clerk Intern to support the Judicial Law Clerk in legal research, drafting orders, and case management. This internship provides valuable experience in the legal field and insight into the judicial process.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct legal research on various topics and cases.
- Assist in drafting memoranda, orders, and opinions.
- Review case files and summarize key documents.
- Attend court proceedings and take notes.
- Perform administrative tasks as needed.

Qualifications:

- Currently enrolled in a law school or a recent law graduate.
- Strong research and writing skills.
- Ability to analyze complex legal issues.
- Excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Proficiency in legal research databases (e.g., Westlaw, LexisNexis) is a plus.

To apply, please send a resume, a writing sample limited to 5 pages, and transcripts (unofficial are acceptable) to EJohnson@co.pg.md.us.