

LEGAL AID BUREAU, INC.

Provides legal services in civil (not criminal) matters where the well-being of children is immediately threatened. The Bureau also handles problems in the following areas: housing, public benefits (such as unemployment, AFDC, and Social Security) and problems of senior citizens. Also provides legal services for migrant farm workers. Services extremely limited in some counties.

111 High Street, Salisbury, MD 21801

410-546-5511

1-800-444-4099 Fax: 410-546-2148 Email: lowershore@mdlabor.org

STATEWIDE SERVICES

MARYLAND VOLUNTEER LAWYERS SERVICE (MVLS) – In Cooperation with the County Bar Association

Non-profit free legal help. In order to qualify, the litigant's household income must fall within their income guidelines and have a matter that can be resolved by using the DOM REL forms. Covers: consumer problems, bankruptcy, govt. benefits, tax audits, private pension benefits, divorce, custody, guardianship, wills, power of attorney, etc.

1 N Charles Street, Suite 222

Baltimore, MD 21201

Phone: Baltimore City: 410-547-6537

Phone: All other counties: 800-510-0050

Email: info@mvlslaw.org

FAMILY LAW HOTLINE

Volunteer attorneys answer basic questions about Maryland family law, such as how to obtain a separation, child custody, child support, and ways to escape family violence. Litigants must be income eligible and provide basic data required by funding source.

Tuesday & Thursday: 9:30 AM – 4:30 PM

The Woman's Law Center of Maryland, Inc.

305 W. Chesapeake Avenue, Suite 201

Towson, MD 21204

Hotline 1-800-845-8550

MARYLAND DISABILITY LAW CENTER

Legal assistance for the disabled, e.g., special education, social security benefits, vocational rehabilitation, protective services, guardianship, nursing home advocacy, and legal services to Children in Need of Assistance.

1400 Mercantile Lane, Suite 242

Landover, MD 20785

1-800-233-7201

1-800-870-6362

PEOPLES' LAW LIBRARY OF MARYLAND

This free Internet site contains information and forms on Maryland Family Law. Public Internet terminals are available in many public libraries. <http://www.peoples-law.com>

LEGAL ADVICE LINE

Telephone or Internet Maryland legal advice on any subject for a flat fee of $34.95 per call payable by credit card.

888-367-5252

<http://www.legaladvice.com>