

FAMILY- PHASE IV

All Family matters are now proceeding in the Circuit Court. While the Court is open and fully operational for these types of cases, matters that may be conducted remotely, whether in full or in part, may be conducted as such at the discretion of the Court. Any requests from a party or counsel to proceed remotely during Phase IV, shall be submitted in writing to the presiding Judge or Magistrate.

The following court proceedings will continue to proceed remotely until further notice:

1. scheduling conferences. The format for these conferences will be teleconferencing in contested matters and videoconferencing via zoom in non-contested matters.
2. status conferences. The format for these conferences will be teleconferencing.
3. court-ordered mediation. The preferred format for these conferences will be videoconferencing via zoom.
4. court-ordered settlement conferences. The preferred format for these conferences will be videoconferencing via zoom.
5. the Family Law Self-Represented Litigants Clinic and the Adult Guardianship Clinic are by appointment only until further notice. The consultation with the attorney will be conducted by teleconferencing. To schedule an appointment call Family Services at 410-632-5638.

JUVENILE COURT- PHASE IV

(DELINQUENCY)

All Juvenile (Delinquency) matters are now proceeding in the Circuit Court. While the Court is open and fully operational for these types of cases, matters that may be conducted remotely, whether in full or in part, may be conducted as such at the discretion of the Court. Any requests from a party or counsel to proceed remotely during Phase IV, shall be submitted in writing to the presiding Judge or Magistrate.

JUVENILE COURT- PHASE IV

(CINA)

All Juvenile (CINA) matters are now proceeding in the Circuit Court. While the Court is open and fully operational for these types of cases, matters that may be conducted remotely, whether in full or in part, may be conducted as such at the discretion of the Court. Any requests from a party or counsel to proceed remotely during Phase IV, shall be submitted in writing to the presiding Judge or Magistrate.