

Queen Anne's County

Beginning Monday, June 8th, clerks will be on a rotating schedule to allow for social distancing. Once partitions are installed at the work stations, all clerks will return to the office.

For Phase II, Judge Kratovil will be continuing to hold bail reviews, bail reconsiderations, DV/PO's, guilty pleas, some VOP hearings, nolle prosequi's, stets, emergency evaluations, mental health hearings, body attachments and any matters involving quarantine and isolation violations. At this time, he is handling these matters remotely via Skype.