

NOTICE OF REVISION
Effective 08/01/2024

The Chief Judge of the District Court of Maryland has revised the following District Court of Maryland Administrative Regulation:

XXVII. Handguns and Other Type of Firearms on Court Premises

By the authority vested in me under Courts and Judicial Proceedings § 1-605, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, Administrative Regulation XXVII is revised to reflect the following change:

- In District Court locations that have Parole and Probation offices, security officers contracted by the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services are permitted to carry into the District Court a handgun or other type of firearm while guarding the Department of Parole and Probation offices.
