

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF MARYLAND FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY DISTRICT EIGHT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
REGARDING STAY OF EVICTIONS DUE TO EXTREME WEATHER CONDITIONS

WHEREAS, the National Weather Service issued a Hazardous Weather Outlook and a Winter Weather Advisory in effect on Thursday, February 6, 2025, for the Baltimore County Maryland area;

WHEREAS, the Hazardous Weather Outlook and Winter Weather Advisory indicate that accumulating ice and sleet is expected beginning Wednesday, February 5, 2025 and continuing overnight into Thursday, February 6, 2025 throughout the I-95 corridor which includes the Baltimore County Maryland area;

WHEREAS, the Real Property Article §8-401(f)(2)(i) of the Annotated Code of Maryland authorizes the administrative judge of any district to stay the execution of a warrant of restitution of a residential property, from day to day, in the event of extreme weather conditions, including a temperature or next-day forecasted temperature of 32 degrees Fahrenheit or lower issued by the National Weather Service;

WHEREAS, the Real Property Article §8-401(f)(2)(ii) of the Annotated Code of Maryland further authorizes the execution of the warrant of restitution for which the stay has been granted to be given priority and completed within 5 days after the extreme weather conditions have ceased, it is hereby ORDERED this 6th day of February 2025 that the execution of all warrants of restitution of residential property in Baltimore County, Maryland shall be stayed due to the extreme weather conditions on Thursday, February 6, 2025 and it is further ORDERED, that the execution of the warrant of restitution for which the stay has been granted shall be given priority and completed within 5 days after the extreme weather conditions have ceased.
